

INTERIOR OF TRINITY CHURCH, NEW YORK

On this spot for two and a half centuries Old Trinity has served our Lord Je us Christ, proclaiming His Word, and providi g His Presence. Thousands pray here before and after and during their work, in the Chapel of All Saints and before the high altar. It is God's House, free and open for the use of all. Here, with services every day, clergy ready for informal con.ultation or sacrament, the Intercessions Box, the Tract Case, shelves of selected reading, and twice-weekly organ recitals, God's "Welcome" calls His children.
